

DEAR INVESTOR/STAKEHOLDER/
OWNER/MANAGER,

You may recall in the fall of 2008, the credit crunch, which had emerged a little more than a year before in the United States of America, ballooned into Wall Street's biggest crisis since the Great Depression. The domino effects of this crisis rippled around the globe. The channels of credit, the arteries of the global financial system, were constricted, cutting off crucial funds to consumers and businesses small and large. The small nation island of Jamaica was not spared!

There were numerous business failures; however, for those that survived, they learned to re-invent themselves!

What can you do to re-invent your business, survive and grow? And who is there to offer assistance?
